

RSPCA NSW Inspectorate Annual Report 2025-2026

Submitted in accordance with section 34B(3) of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1979 (NSW)

(1) Information pursuant to clause 41(1) of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Regulation 2025 (NSW):

(a) complaints received, and investigations undertaken, about the treatment of animals:

Between 1 July 2025 and 30 June 2026 (reporting period), RSPCA NSW received a total of 10,795 complaints alleging cruelty to animals contrary to the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1979 (NSW) (Act), the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Regulation 2012 (NSW) and/or the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Regulation 2025 (NSW) (Regulation). These complaints often involved more than one animal and multiple complaint types.

See sections 2(a)-(c) below for further details regarding complaints received and investigations undertaken during the reporting period.

(b) animals seized or taken possession of under the Act:

Between 1 July 2025 and 30 June 2026, RSPCA NSW seized or took possession of 3,979 animals under the Act.

See section 2(f) below for further details regarding animals seized or taken possession of during the reporting period.

(c) cautions given:

RSPCA NSW interprets clause 41(1)(c) of the Regulation as a reference to official cautions issued pursuant to section 19A of the Fines Act 1996 (NSW). During the reporting period, RSPCA NSW issued 18 such official cautions.

(d) notices issued:

RSPCA NSW interprets clause 41(1)(d) of the Regulation as a reference to written notices issued pursuant to section 24N of the Act. During the reporting period, RSPCA NSW issued 934 such notices.

(e) proceedings for offences instituted:

Between 1 July 2025 and 30 June 2026, RSPCA NSW commenced 135 prosecutions.

See sections 2(h)-(j) and Appendix 1 below for further details regarding proceedings conducted during the reporting period.

(f) the organisation's officers and the training provided for the officers:

Officers

As at 30 June 2026, RSPCA NSW had a total of 42 officers. Of those 42 officers, 34 are holders of a prescribed authority under the provisions of Part 2A of the Act, issued with the approval of the Minister for Agriculture. 8 officers were awaiting their prescribed authority as at the end of the reporting period.

See section 2(k) below for further details regarding the officers of RSPCA NSW.

Training

See section 2(m) below for details regarding the training provided by RSPCA NSW for its officers during the reporting period.

(g) complaints about the organisation or the organisation's officers:

RSPCA NSW received 16 complaints during the reporting period.

See section 2(l) below for further details regarding the complaints.

(2) Information pursuant to clause 41(2) of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Regulation 2025 (NSW):

(a) a statement of the number of, and a summary of the substance of, complaints relating to animal cruelty or mistreatment received by the organisation during the reporting period for the report:

Between 1 July 2025 and 30 June 2026, RSPCA NSW received a total of 10,795 complaints alleging cruelty to animals contrary to the Act and/or the Regulation. These complaints often involved multiple animals and multiple complaint 'codes'. Complaint codes designate the substance of a complaint and are assigned when a complaint is lodged.

The following table shows the numbers and types of complaints received by RSPCA NSW during the reporting period, noting that multiple complaint codes may be assigned to a single complaint:

(b) a statement of the number of visits or investigations made by the organisation's officers as a result of the complaints during the reporting period for the report:

Of the 10,795 complaints received, RSPCA NSW investigated 10,274 complaints (an average of 39.5 jobs per day). The investigation of these complaints involved 10,274 initial inspections and a further 2,820 revisits. Revisits were generally conducted to inspect subject animals and assess compliance with either written or verbal directions. The difference between the number of complaints received and the complaints investigated is accounted for by complaints which did not invoke RSPCA NSW jurisdiction, complaints which were referred to other agencies, and complaints which were logged for intel only purposes.

(c) a statement of the number of visits or investigations made by the organisation's officers during the reporting period for the report that were unrelated to the complaints. Examples—routine inspections of abattoirs, pet shops or saleyards:

Between 1 July 2025 and 30 June 2026, RSPCA NSW conducted 513 'proactive/routine' inspections.

The capacity to conduct these inspections is dependent on available resources, with the investigation of animal cruelty complaints taking priority.

(d) a statement of the number of persons officially cautioned by the organisation's officers during the reporting period for the report:

RSPCA NSW issued 18 official cautions pursuant to section 19A of the Fines Act 1996 (NSW) during the reporting period.

(e) a statement of the number of notices issued by the organisation's officers under the Act, section 24N during the reporting period for the report:

RSPCA NSW issued 934 written notices pursuant to section 24N of the Act during the reporting period.

(f) a statement of the number of animals seized or taken possession of under the Act and the number of days for which the animals remained in the organisation's possession or care:

RSPCA NSW seized or took possession of 3,979 animals under the Act during the reporting period. When calculating days in care, RSPCA NSW does not have the ability to isolate those 3,979 animals from animals that were seized or taken possession of under the Act prior to 2025/26. RSPCA NSW recorded 274,023 days in care for all Inspectorate animals (including animals seized or taken possession of in earlier financial years).

(g) a statement of the number of penalty notices issued by the organisation's officers during the reporting period for the report:

During the reporting period, RSPCA NSW issued 77 Penalty Infringement Notices.

(h) a statement of the number of proceedings for offences under the Act or the regulations instituted by the organisation's officers, including details of the defendants and the charges, during the reporting period for the report:

RSPCA NSW instituted 135 criminal prosecutions during the reporting period against a total of 134 defendants. This brought the total number of active RSPCA NSW prosecutions in the reporting period to 239, noting that 104 prosecutions commenced prior to 2025/26 had not been finalised as at the date of the previous report.

Details of the proceedings, defendants and charges are provided at Appendix 1 – Prosecution Results 2025/2026.

(i) details of the outcome of proceedings referred to in paragraph (h) that had been finally determined by the date of the report:

Of the 135 prosecutions commenced during the reporting period, 75 had been finalised as at 30 June 2026, while 60 were pending final determination.

Of the 75 prosecutions finalised:

- 50 were determined following a plea of guilty,
- 16 were heard and determined in the accused's absence pursuant to section 190 or 196 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 (NSW),
- 3 were dealt with pursuant to section 14 of the Mental Health and Cognitive Impairment Forensic Provisions Act 2020 (NSW)
- 4 were withdrawn
- 2 involved appeals by the defendant to the District Court

(j) details of the outcome of proceedings for offences referred to in the immediately previous report that had not been finally determined by the date of the previous report:

As noted above, RSPCA NSW had 239 active prosecutions during the reporting period. 104 of those were commenced prior to 2025/26 and are detailed in Appendix 1 – Prosecution Results 2025/2026.

Of the 104 prosecutions that had not been finally determined by the date of the previous report, 72 had been finalised by 30 June 2026, while 32 were still ongoing.

Of the 72 prosecutions finalised:

- 41 were determined following a plea of guilty,
- 7 were heard and determined in the accused's absence pursuant to section 190 or 196 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 (NSW),
- 5 were dealt with pursuant to section 14 of the Mental Health and Cognitive Impairment Forensic Provisions Act 2020 (NSW)

- 5 were withdrawn
- 14 involved appeals by the defendant to the District Court
